SUMMARY

A motivated English Education graduate with strong communication skills and experience in personalized client service and guest interaction. Throughout my previous roles, I developed the ability to assist clients with professionalism, active listening, and a service-oriented attitude. I am confident interacting with diverse individuals, including international guests, and I consistently maintain a polite, approachable, and professional demeanor. I am now seeking an opportunity in the hospitality industry, particularly in roles such as a Reservation Agent or Front Office where I can contribute to excellent guest experience and continue developing my skills in a hotel environment.
